

Getting More Out of Your Mine

BI Architect

Overview

Wenco provides high technology solutions for the mining industry globally to advance productivity, efficiency and safety.

We are looking for a talented BI Architect to join our team. This is a great opportunity to work within a fast growing industry and company. You will be a key player in designing an analytics solution built on the Wenco suite of products.

Key Responsibilities

You will be responsible for interviewing key stakeholders and working with the Analytics Architect and our partners to develop a data model for adhoc reporting and a presentation layer of interconnected dashboards, charts and reports providing general KPI reporting and guided data analysis.

Responsibilities include requirements analysis, data modeling, and dashboard design. The ideal candidate should have experience with Business Intelligence in the mining industry.

Qualifications and Skills:

- University Degree or Technology Diploma with relevant industrial experience.
- Relational database and SQL expertise
- Tableau, Pentaho and SSIS experience would be an asset

Experience Requirements:

- 2+ years of practical, full-time experience developing analytical solutions in an enterprise or commercial environment.

Non-Technical Requirements:

- A passion for data and helping businesses improve their operations through data analysis
- Able to work well with customers in identifying their requirements and demonstrating prototype solutions
- Able to work with data scientists from both a technical and business oriented perspective
- Able to work well both within a team and independently, producing high quality deliverables with a focus on the user experience.
- Well organized, with excellent problem solving, conceptual and analytical skills
